So it was determined in the negative; and the said bill was therefore rejected.

The speaker then announced the next order of the day, being the report of the joint committee of the senate and house of delegates, upon the general fee bill, laid before each branch of the legislature, at the present session, under the authority of the resolution, No. 99, passed at the last session, proposing sundry amendments thereto; when, on motion by Mr. Chapman, the said order of the day was postponed to Wednesday next, the 28th instant; and the said report, with the bill to which it relates, were made the order of the day for that day.

Mr. Buchanan then moved, that the house do now proceed to the consideration of his motion submitted on Friday last, the 23d instant, and then laid on the table; the object of which was, to obtain a reconsideration of the vote of this house on the 21st instant, rejecting the bill from the senate, entitled, A supplement to an act, entitled, An act against excessive usury; when, on motion by Mr. Crabb, the house, pursuant to the order adopted this morning, adjourned until this evening six o'clock.

SIX O'CLOCK, P. M. Monday, February 26th, 1827.

The house met, pursuant to the foregoing adjournment. Were present the same members as in the morning.

Mr. Norris asked and obtained leave to withdraw from the further consideration of the house, the bill reported by Mr. Hope, entitled, An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the relief of the poor in Montgomery and Harford counties, passed at December session, 1787, chapter 16.
